Chicken Gyro

Brand Guidelines · 2025

Introduction

Purpose

This document defines the brand identity of Chick Point. It exists to ensure consistency across every touchpoint — from social media posts to in-store signage to digital designs. Anyone creating content under the Chick Point name should treat this guide as the single source of truth.

About the Brand

Chick Point is a Halal chicken gyro restaurant located on Main Street in Paterson, NJ. Specializing in chicken doner, wraps, sandwiches, bowls, and burgers — all made with signature house-made sauces in a friendly, welcoming environment. We are the street-level, chicken-first counterpart to the Turkish Mediterranean tradition — fast, real, and full of flavor.

Chick Point is an independent brand with its own identity. While it shares roots with the Turkish Mediterranean food scene in New Jersey, it carves its own lane: younger, louder, more casual — but never cheap in quality.

Our Mission

To serve the best Halal chicken in Paterson — with our own sauces, our own energy, and zero compromise on freshness. A place where everyone belongs and every bite hits.

Our Vision

To become the go-to Halal chicken spot in New Jersey — the brand that defines what a great chicken gyro tastes like, and the place the neighborhood calls its own.

Brand Pillars

- Friendly environment — everyone is welcome at our counter
- House-made signature sauces — our flavor is ours alone
- 100% Halal — always, without compromise
- Street energy, real quality — casual atmosphere, serious food

Logo

The Chick Point logo consists of two elements: the chicken icon (orange) and the wordmark "CHICK POINT" (bold, black or white), with the tagline "Chicken Gyro" (orange, italic). These elements always appear together in approved configurations. Never separate, recreate, or modify them.

Logo Variants

PRIMARY (STACKED)

The chicken icon sits above or to the left of the stacked wordmark. Default for most use cases.

HORIZONTAL

Icon placed inline with a single-line wordmark. Use for horizontal spaces such as website headers, email signatures, and wide banners.

Logo on Backgrounds

LIGHT BACKGROUNDS (WHITE, CREAM #FFF8F2)

Use the full-color logo: orange icon, black wordmark, orange tagline.

DARK BACKGROUNDS (BLACK #000000, CHARCOAL #1A1A1A)

Use the reversed logo: orange icon, white wordmark, orange tagline.

Logo Rules

- Always maintain clear space equal to the height of the letter "C" on all sides
- Minimum width: Stacked 80px · Horizontal 160px
- Never stretch, rotate, recolor, add effects, or apply drop shadows to the logo
- Never recreate the logo in Canva — always use the provided file
- Never place text or other elements inside the logo clear space

Never Place the Logo On

- Busy photographs without a solid color container
- Backgrounds that create low contrast with either the orange or the wordmark

Color Palette

Two primary colors anchor the Chick Point identity. Orange is energy — appetite, excitement, street heat. Black is the anchor — quality, contrast, confidence. All other colors play a supporting role. Never introduce colors outside this palette into brand materials.

Primary Colors

Swatch	Name / Code	Usage
	Chick Orange #F4842A RGB 244, 132, 42	Logo icon, accents, CTAs, headline emphasis on dark and light backgrounds
	Authority Black #000000 RGB 0, 0, 0	Logo wordmark, body text, dark backgrounds

Secondary Colors

Swatch	Name / Code	Usage
	Warm Cream #FFF8F2 RGB 255, 248, 242	Background for menus, print materials, and light-mode designs
	Charcoal #1A1A1A RGB 26, 26, 26	Alternative dark background; softer option to pure black
	Deep Orange #C9611A RGB 201, 97, 26	Depth and shadow on orange elements; hover states in digital
	White #FFFFFF RGB 255, 255, 255	Logo on dark backgrounds; text on orange

COLOR RATIO RULE

In any single design: 60% Neutral (Black / Cream / White) · 30% Supporting · 10% Orange Accent. Orange should command attention — not compete with itself. Never use more than two brand colors in a single visual element.

Typography

Two typefaces. Each has a specific role. Never substitute outside of these.

Role	Font	Weight	Use Case
Title / Display	Poetsen One	Regular (All Caps)	Major headlines, section titles, brand wordmark, campaign statements
Subtitle / Accent	F Code Next	Regular / Italic	Taglines, supporting text, secondary UI elements
Body / Caption	F Code Next	Regular	Menu descriptions, social captions, all body text

Typography Rules

- Poetsen One is always used for headlines and display — never for body text
- Never use more than two typefaces in a single design
- Minimum body text size: 12pt print · 14px digital
- Headlines in Poetsen One pair with body in F Code Next as the default combination
- Avoid mixing bold and regular weights in the same line unless for clear hierarchy

Voice & Tone

Our voice is your cool older cousin who knows every spot. Our tone is the guy behind the counter who's been making this sauce for years and knows you're going to love it. We are confident without being arrogant, warm without being soft.

Brand Voice Traits

STREET ENERGY, REAL QUALITY

We talk like the neighborhood. Short sentences, punchy delivery. No corporate speak, no fluff. We're casual but we never talk down to anyone.

Best chicken in Paterson. No debate.

That sauce? We made it. You can't get it anywhere else.

WARM & INCLUSIVE

Everybody eats here. First-timers, regulars, families, late-night crews. We write with open arms — there is always room at our counter. We never exclude or gatekeep.

Never had a chicken gyro? We've been waiting for you.

Come in. Eat well. Come back.

PROUDLY HALAL

100% Halal is not a marketing angle — it is simply who we are. We state it clearly and move on. It is a given, not a pitch.

100% Halal. Always.

PLAYFUL BUT NEVER CHILDISH

We have fun with the brand. Trends, memes, local humor — yes. But we never sacrifice credibility for a cheap laugh. The food is always the star.

Takis in a wrap. You're welcome.

Extra hot. You asked for it.

Tone by Platform

INSTAGRAM

Short, punchy, visual-first. One strong idea per caption. Emojis used sparingly and intentionally. Always end with an invitation or question.

FACEBOOK

Slightly longer. Community-focused. Share updates, promotions, and local news with warmth. More conversational than Instagram.

GOOGLE / IN-STORE

Clear and informative. Straightforward descriptions of food and experience. No slang. Trust-building language.

TIKTOK / REELS

Energy-first. Hook in the first second. Lean into reactions, sauce reveals, wrap builds. Authenticity over polish.

What We Never Say

- Artisanal, craft, elevated, curated — overused and hollow
- Anything that talks down to or excludes any audience group
- Overly formal or corporate phrases

Our Audience

Chick Point speaks to three distinct groups. The messaging shifts in emphasis — never in quality or authenticity.

The Paterson Local

They live and eat in Paterson. They want something real, fast, and worth their money. They've seen new spots come and go — we earn their loyalty through consistency, flavor, and being genuinely part of the neighborhood. When they become fans, they bring everyone they know.

The Halal-Conscious Community

For whom Halal certification is non-negotiable. They aren't just choosing food — they're choosing where they feel respected. Our 100% Halal commitment is a given, never a marketing angle. It is simply who we are.

The Young & Food-Curious

Younger eaters who are on social media, follow food trends, and love discovering spots before they blow up. They respond to personality, content, and standout menu items. The Takis Wrap, Extra Hot, the signature sauces — these are the items that get shared.

Desserts & Beverages

Baklava and Cocoa Pudding for desserts. Beverages include Turnip Juice (Salgam) and Uludag Soda — authentic touches that reinforce the brand's Turkish-Mediterranean roots.

Canva Design Guidelines

All Chick Point designs in Canva must use the Brand Kit. Never freestyle outside the approved colors, fonts, or logo files stored in the kit.

Always

- Use the Brand Kit logo files — never recreate the logo
- Apply brand colors from the kit palette only
- Use Poetsen One for all headline text
- Maintain sufficient contrast between text and background
- Use Cream (#FFF8F2) or Black (#000000) as your primary background
- Keep designs clean — generous white/dark space reads as premium
- Food photography should feel real, appetizing, and close-up

Never

- Add gradients, glows, or drop shadows to the logo
- Use fonts outside the two approved typefaces
- Combine more than two brand colors in a single design element
- Place the logo on busy or low-contrast backgrounds
- Use stock photo aesthetics — visuals should feel street-real and food-forward
- Add clip art, generic icons, or non-brand graphics
